Getting started

WARNING

Do not place your BT Diverse 6350 in the bathroom or other humid areas.

Handset range

The BT Diverse 6200 additional handset has a range of 300 metres outdoors when there is a clear line of sight between the base and the handset. When there is no clear line of sight between the base and the handset, e.g. base indoors and handset either indoors or outdoors, the range could be reduced to 50 metres. Thick stone walls can severely affect the range.

Signal strength

The  symbol on your handset screen indicates when you are in range. When you are out of range, it flashes and the screen displays SEARCHING and there is a beep, you are out of range.

IMPORTANT

The BT Diverse 6350 corded telephone must be plugged into the mains power at all times.

Which socket?

Power socket

Telephone line socket

Location

You need to place your BT Diverse 6350 close enough to a mains power and telephone socket so that the cables will reach.

Make sure it is at least 1 metre away from other electrical appliances to avoid interference.

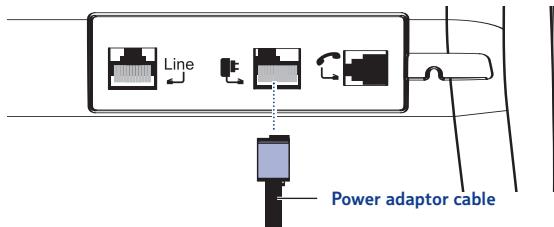

Your BT Diverse 6200 additional handset works by sending radio signals between the handset and the BT Diverse 6350 corded telephone. The strength of the signal depends on where you site the telephone. Putting it as high as possible ensures the best signal.

Your BT Diverse 6350 and BT Diverse 6200 additional handset can both be wall mounted, see wall mounting on page 90.

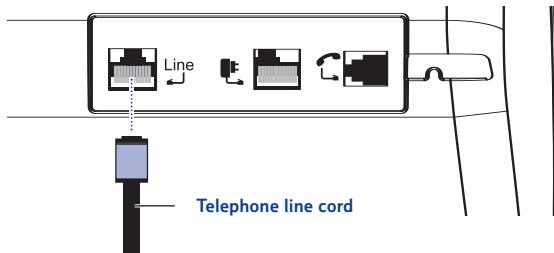

Setting up

Corded telephone

1. Connect the straight end of the curly handset cord into the base. Connect the other end of the cord to the handset.
2. Plug the mains power adaptor into the power socket on the underside of the base. Plug the other end into the mains socket. The display lights up.

3. Connect the telephone line cord to the base of the BT Diverse 6350 corded telephone and plug the other end into the wall socket.

4. Press the line cables into the grooves on the base of the phone so that the phone can lie flat.

Providing you have subscribed to your network's Caller Display service, the day and time is automatically set when you receive your first incoming call.

However, you can also set the day and time manually, see page 60.

10

Getting started

Battery low warning

When the batteries need recharging, the handset beeps and the display shows .

Battery level

The battery symbol shows the current level

Battery performance

To keep your batteries in the best condition, leave the handset off the base for a few hours at a time (after the initial 16 hour charge).

Running the batteries right down at least once a week will help them last as long as possible.

On a full charge, your BT Diverse 6200 additional handset gives up to 13 hours talk time or up to 170 hours standby.

The charge capacity of rechargeable batteries will reduce with time as they wear out, giving the handset less talk/standby time. Eventually they will need to be replaced

Batteries and handset may become warm during charging. This is normal.

Setting up

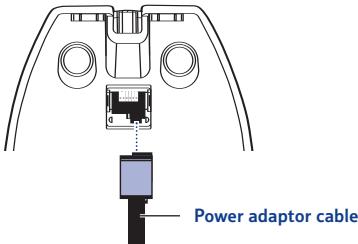

Additional handset and charger

Location

You need to place your BT Diverse 6200 charger close enough to a mains power socket so that the cable will reach.

Your BT Diverse 6200 additional handset and charger can be wall mounted, see wall mounting on page 90.

4. Plug the power adaptor cable into the underside of the charger.

5. Plug the power adaptor into the mains wall socket and switch the power on.
6. Batteries will come inserted in the battery compartment. Pull the plastic tag as instructed to activate the batteries.

7. Place the handset in the charger and charge the handset for at least 16 hours.

The BT Diverse 6200 additional handset comes pre-registered to the corded telephone base, so once the handset has been fully charged, it is ready for use.

If you purchase any further additional handsets you will need to register them. Please see page 75 for instructions.

Your BT Diverse 6350 is now ready for use.

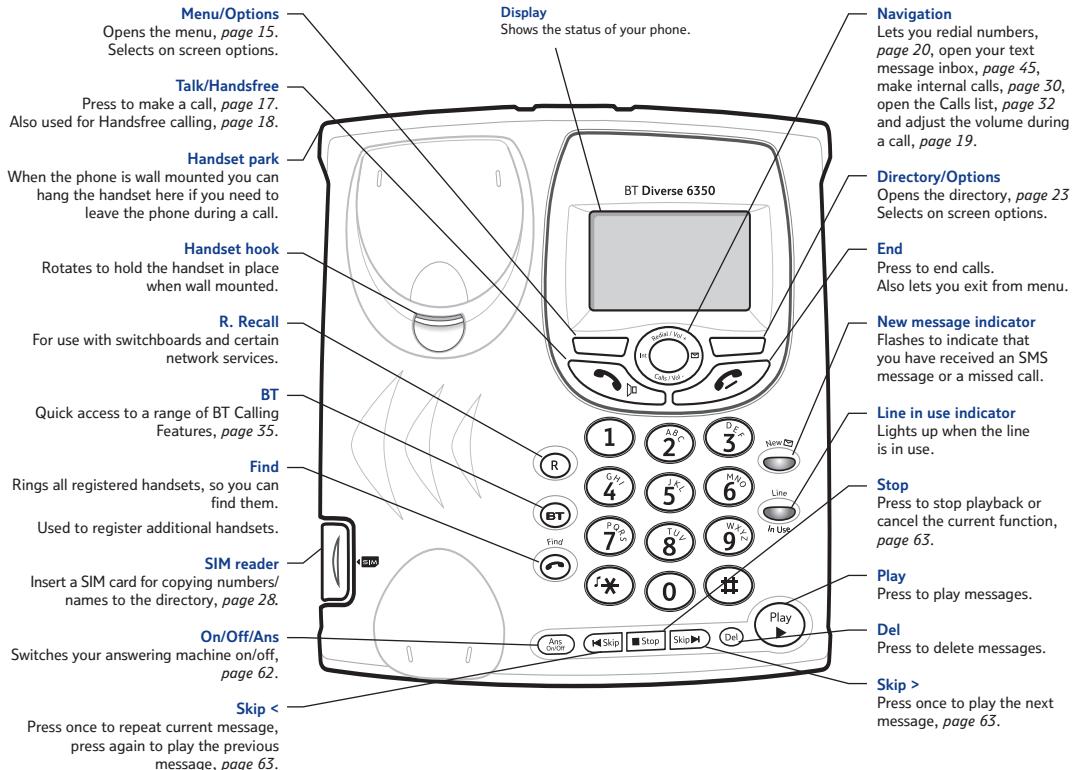

Under no circumstances use non-rechargeable batteries. Only use NiMH rechargeable batteries with a recommended capacity of 750mAh. Using inappropriate batteries will invalidate your guarantee and may damage the telephone.

Helpline

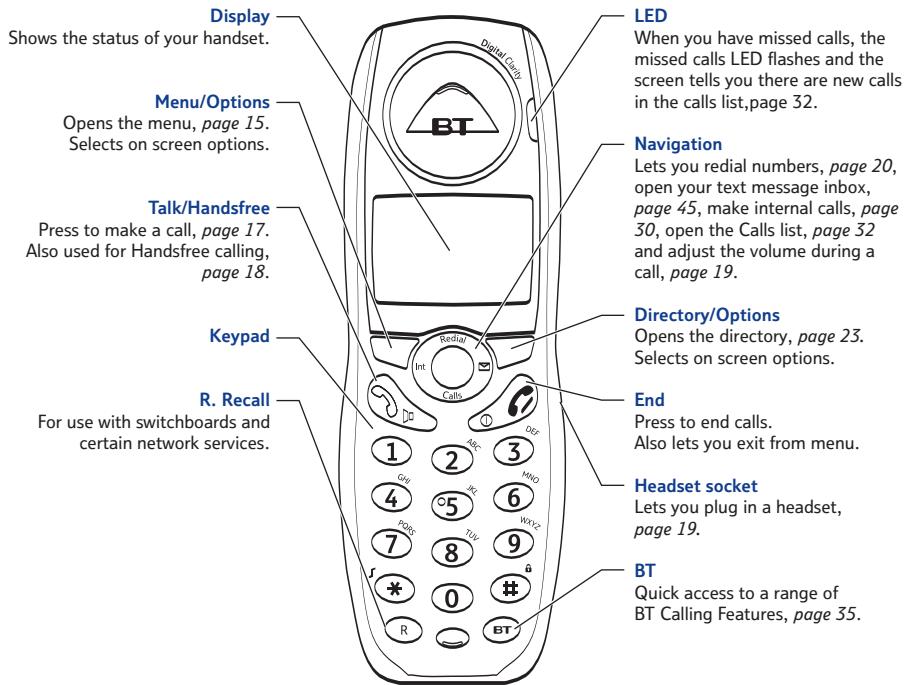

If you are having any difficulties setting up or using your BT Diverse 6350, please call the BT Diverse Helpline on 0870 240 3962 or email bt.helpdesk@vtecheurope.com

SMS stands for Short Messaging Service

IMPORTANT

Please note that the conversion can translate common abbreviations and smileys etc, but to ensure maximum clarity of message delivery, abbreviations etc should be used sparingly.
